Dear Nebraska Elks,

I thank you for supporting the Kids on the Block. I liked how they talked about how being a new kid is hard. I have a kid in my class. He came last year, and he's having trouble making friends. He takes special classes just like the puppets did. The two ladies were very nice. I was surprised how much the puppets, scripts, and everything cost to do that. I liked last year's program that they did on bullying, last year too. It's nice that they came and put it on for the past two years.

Sincerely,
Neal Reardon

Dear Presenters,

Thank you so much for the presentation today. The puppets were truly amazing to my second graders. It was so easy to see each of the students relate to the problems presented. Your were easy to hear and the interaction with the students was amazing. We certainly were entertained while learning how to handle difficult situations.

Thanks so much,
Mrs. Conrad and Grade 2

Dear Kid on the Block

Thank you for the show.

I loved it! I liked the puppets. It was a funny show

My favorite part was when you talked about bullying.

I liked when Clare helped

Eddy when he was getting bullied. The puppets were awesome. I had a lot of fun. HDC!

Dear Nebraska Elks,

I thank you for supporting the Kids on the Block. They came to our school today and talked to us about behavior, respect, and having a good character. At the beginning Jimmy was rude and not being a good friend at all. Throughout the skit he started to improve. When the girl was talking mean about Jimmy, Mark was not happy. Mark's in a wheelchair so he knows how Jimmy feels. Mark got teased on too. So thanks for coming to our school. We all loved the way they -> presented : the puppets.

Sincerely,
Emma Olson

Dear Brenda,

Your work as a supporter for "Big Alp and Blue Ribbon", "Gutman", and "Giving and Respect" was outstanding. The past Tuesday, November 5, the information was delivered well along with follow-up up discussion questions.
Support team to keep students of all ages, attention. Your topics that are presented are ones students face on will be having which makes their programs so effective.

Thank you for taking time in presenting here at Zion Lutheran.
